EvergreenHealth

Urgent Care & Emergency Care

Urgent Care

If you have an illness or injury that doesn't seem to be life-threatening, go to urgent care.

- Colds, flu, fever
- Sore throat
- Cough
- Dehydration
- Simple fractures
- Bronchitis
- Nausea
- Allergies
- Urinary tract infections
- Sprains and strains
- Rash
- Ear infections
- Asthma attack (minor)
- Minor cuts/lacerations
- Stitches
- Minor burns
- Insect bites
- Migraine headaches
- Pink eye
- Dizziness
- Minor head injury

Emergency Services

24 hours, 7 days week

If you have a serious or potentially life-threatening illness or injury, go to the nearest emergency department or call 9-1-1.

- Chest pain or discomfort
- Shortness of breath
- Palpitations
- Severe asthma attack
- Unconscious or loss of consciousness
- Confusion
- Seizures
- Severe headaches
- Shock
- Fainting
- Pneumonia
- High fevers
- Visible fractures
- Significant trauma or injuries
- Cuts/lacerations (moderate severe)
- Major head injury
- Severe burns
- Severe abdominal pain
- Snake bites
- Transplant patients
- Uncontrolled bleeding
- Infant fevers less than 2 months
- Swallowing of foreign objects
- Ingestion of poison

www.evergreenhealth.com